May 2, 1866 MRS REBECCA HOWARD

Love Feast at the Continental Hotel, Philadelphia

The following is the report of the Philadelphia Press of the meeting of the reconstructed at the Continental Hotel in that city:

George W Curtis of New York spoke for half an hour, amid calls for Mosby Jeff Davis and others of the defunct Confederacy. On the question of the equality of the negro race, he spoke as follows

Fellow citizens I am opposed to the negro [Laughter, cheers and cries of "Boo, boo"] If any man appears before you for suffrage, just look if one-half his face is black and the other is white [Shouts "Bring out a candle and let's see yours!" Laughter mingled with applause] It is impossible to make the negro equal to the white man [Cries of "We know it—tell us something new" Shouts "How are you, Andersonville?" "Mosby!" "Andersonville!" "Tell us something about Jeff Davis"]

My friends, I was going to say—["Three cheers for the Dead Duck!" Three groans for the Dead Dog!" "Three cheers for John W Forney!" "Three cheers for Thad Stevens!" "Three groans for Jeff Davis!"]—I am not in favor of negro equality [Laughter, cheers and clapping of hands] But while I am not in favor of suffrage for the negro, I would protect him. I am a friend to the negro [Tremendous shouts of "Oh! oh! oh! bully!"] I am, I was going to say—["Go black your face!" "You're a friend to the nigger!" Cries of "Oh, you are!"]

Cheers for almost everything loyal and groans for all traitors drowned the speaker's voice, and he finally retired

The next speaker was introduced as General Epsom, of Texas As soon as the meeting heard this such ejaculations came up from the mighty enthusiastic crowd as "Where did you get your commission?" "Who did you fight for?"

Fellow citizens The Southern States are now recognizing and preparing to come into the Union, to acknowledge the Constitution and bear true allegiance to the Government. [Cries of "You had to do it—can't help yourself "] The speaker hesitated a moment, whereupon some one in the crowd, with a sharp shrill voice like a clarion, reiterated the cry, "What flag did you fight under?" "What kind of a General are you?" shouted another [Roars of laughter, cheers and groans]

We have come, fellow citizens, from all parts of the country [Cries—"We didn't ask you"] We have come to mingle with you, and shall it be said that an American citizen in a free country [Cries of "Oh! oh! who made it free?" "Oh! go bag your head" Three cheers for Lincoln. Three cheers for General Grant Three groans for the 'Bread and Butter Brigade'" Roars of laughter Fellow citizens—[Cries of "How are you, Johnny Reb?" (Laughter) "Three cheers for General Geary!" These were given with a tremendous shout] Fellow citizens, We are from all parts of the country You certainly will not refuse to hear me speak Shall I go home? [Here the speaker was again interrupted with tremendous shouts of "Yes!" "Go home! go, home' go home! go home!" "We don't care about hearing you!" "Bring out the next speaker"]

General Epsom retired, and presently another candidate for public favor essayed to speak. We did not hear his name The meeting was quiet for a moment, and the speaker said

"I am from Alabama This is the first time in my life that I have ever spoken in Philadelphia" [Shouts, "What did you come for?" "Who are you?"]

Gentlemen, said the speaker [Cries of "We're the boys" "Three cheers for the boys in blue." "Three cheers for General Geary"]

The speaker now exhibited evidence of losing his temper, and said something about "renegade Pennsylvanians" His voice was now drowned by several hundred joining in full chorus,

Down with the traitors,
Up with the stars

While this song was being sung amid the most deafening cheers, in which it really seemed the entire assemblage of five thousand persons joined, the speaker retired

At a little after ten this singular and truly comical meeting was dispersed. A portion of the people then proceeded down Chestnut street, singing "John Brown," "Rally Round the Flag, Boys," "Down with the Traitors, hurrah boys, hurrah"

FROM RICHMOND —Private letters received by us from a resident of Richmond (Va.), who was persecuted by the rebels early during the war for his loyalty to the old flag and his fealty to the National Government, and who, subsequently escaping from their imprisonment, did good service for the Union and the Federal cause up to the fall of the Confederacy, when he was enabled to return to his family and home, where he has since been bravely battling for equal rights and equal laws, furnish some idea of the real spirit which controls and guides the "reconstructed" Our correspondent, who is furthermore one of the signers of the call for the Philadelphia Convention of Southern Unionists, under date of August 4th, says

"Politically speaking, our people in this city are very happy. The riot in New Orleans and the course pursued by Andrew Johnson has given the traitors new courage. It reminds me of the first Bull Run, and other fights in the early part of the war, that covered the Confederates all over with Confederate glory. Many of the more active rebels do not hesitate to say that they will soon have a riot in Richmond, and that niggers and Union whites will be put to the knife and halter These threats serve to make weak Union men come down on their knees, and for that I am thankful It is time for us to know our friends He who is not with us is against us, and he who has not yet learned that his duty is first to his God, then his Country, and next his family and himself, deserves to go through another war and suffer as I have seen men, women and children suffer for the last five years"

Under date of August 8th, the same writer says

"Our ministers here have taken even additional courage since the murder of Unionists at New Orleans 'O, Lord, bless and save Andrew Johnson and Jefferson Davis,' is the prayer of many of our reverend traitors The rebels still continue to arm themselves and drill, keeping up, in fact, their old Confederate organizations The women are as spiteful as she tigers, and manifest as much thirst for blood now as they did in 1861 and 1862 Every traitor, male and female, is loud in praise of Andrew Johnson."

A third letter from Richmond, under date of August 9th, contains the following

"This afternoon a picnic party, composed of the Superintendent teachers and children of the Union Station Methodist Church (South) Sunday School passed my house The band played "Dixie" until they got directly opposite my residence when the party was halted by the deacon in charge, and three cheers given for Jefferson Davis Two elderly ladies passing, publicly asserted that they would like to see my residence burned and my humble self destroyed with it Old and young traitors daily pray God to bless and save Andrew Johnson and heap new and fresh curses on General Butler and all loyal men The negroes are wantonly abused by all the enemies of American liberty, and yet they were never more industrious or obedient than at this time I pray the time may soon come when we shall both see and hear American traitors begging not dictating Mr —— was stoned while riding down street a day or two since, and all known Union men are hourly dogged and threatened To God and my country I look for protection"—Detroit Post.

TERRIBLE STORM IN THE NORTHWEST —A letter dated Chicago, August 13th, says:

The big storm of Saturday which lasted 24 hours, which extended all over Wisconsin, Minnesota Iowa and the North and central part of Illinois, has resulted in serious damage to bridges railway tracks and considerable loss of life. The Tribune to-day has received despatches from almost every point in the States named In Wisconsin the damage to the wheat has been serious I should say, involving a loss of 25 to 50 per cent; on rye and oats considerably less Corn suffers nothing In Iowa the loss in wheat is severe, but not so heavy as in Wisconsin We have but a few despatches from Minnesota but the damage to wheat must be severe In Northern Illinois all classes of grain were much injured by the hail storm about a week since This injury was considerably increased by the storm on Saturday. The aggregate loss will probably reach 35 to 40 per cent In Central and Southern Illinois, little or no damage has been done to the crops

'My Brother —I have learned with pleasure that your Majesty has adhered to the armistice and preliminaries of peace signed by Prussia and Austria It is therefore probable that a new era of tranquility is about to open for Europe. Your Majesty knows that I have made the offer of Venetia in order to save her from any devastation and to prevent useless bloodshed. Your Majesty will recognize that in these circumstances the action of France has again been exercised in favor of humanity and independence of the people. WEDNESDAY MORNING SEPT 19 1866

The Senatorial Question

The Senate yesterday voted for United States Senator, with the following result Gibbs 13, Smith 5 Kelly 5 and Kelsay 1 The House, by a majority of one voted to postpone the election until Tuesday next A majority of the Legislature is of the opinion that yesterday was the day required by law for the election to be held If this judgment be correct the House could not lawfully postpone for a week or for any other time and its action does not put off the election The Joint Convention may still be held to-day the same as if the House had voted yesterday A majority of the members of both Houses are sufficient for the purposes of the Joint Convention. The law expressly provides that in case either house fails to take the required proceedings on the proper day, the Convention shall still meet on the day following and shall proceed to choose a Senator and that "the person having a majority of the votes of the said joint assembly a majority of all the members elected to both Houses being present and voting shall be declared duly elected " A majority may therefore meet to-day and decide the question

The House evidently voted to postpone on account of the Grant county contest It would seem that it is about as important to decide who are entitled to seats from Polk, as to settle the same thing in regard to the Grant county members There appears to be among many members a desire for extraordinary haste in the one case and for protracted delay in the other

The Grant County Contest

The Democratic organs, and particularly the Herald of this city, are indulging in the most bitter denunciations of the Union majority in the Legislature because they decline to dismiss the members from Grant county now holding seats in the House and to install the contestants in their places They would have this done without first submitting the matter to proper investigation, so that it may be positively known who are entitled to the seats The contestants from Grant county have appeared without testimony to substantiate their claims Their political friends desire to have them admitted at once to the seats they are contending for, and to throw upon the ousted parties the burden of proving that they are entitled to seats in the House They would reverse the case entirely, and put the persons at present sitting as members, in the position of contestants Now Messrs Brents and McKean have an apparent right to their seats. The returns in the Secretary's office show that they were duly elected They also bear certificates of election from the Clerk of Grant county The contestants can therefore only obtain their seats by presenting proof that they received a majority of the legal votes of their county in the general election It should also be stated here that they failed to give notice of their intention to contest, within the time required by law Not a word of testimony did they take to make out their case before the meeting of the Legislature, and now they appear, claiming their seats on their own simple assertion that they are entitled to them The House can not act upon the matter intelligently until there is a proper presentation of evidence in the case That the contestants appeared without this evidence is their own fault. It may be that they will receive the seats after the matter shall have been properly investigated, but until they show their right by indubitable proof, they should not be admitted To appear with no proof whatever, is a very unusual way of contesting for a seat in a legislative body.

Security for the National Debt

In considering the pending constitutional amendment there is one section which is often almost overlooked but which is of the first importance we mean that section which guarantees the Federal debt and declares that no obligation incurred in aid of the rebellion shall ever be paid. Any allusion to this subject is often dismissed with the contemptuous remark that nobody ever proposes not to do the one or to do the other of these things. But is there no danger? The Copperhead party has already practically broached the subject of repudiation by insisting that, in defiance of law and of adjudged precedents, the national debt shall be taxed by States, counties and corporations to any extent desired The general cry of that party is taxation or repudiation. Not a few go further, and declare that not one dollar of the debt should ever be paid. The political affinities of these persons are with the late rebels of the South, and if they succeed in combining so as to create a majority party, there is every reason to believe that they will either repudiate the Federal debt or cause the Government to assume the debts of the rebellion It is idle to suppose that the South will willingly relinquish these great debts if there is a chance to force their payment. It would be equally foolish to imagine that the people of that section will cheerfully help to pay a debt that was incurred in subjugating them if they can avoid it The Governor of South Carolina may make fine speeches to credulous people at the North, protesting that his State feels an interest equal to any, in the payment of the national debt; but it is not in human nature that it should be so. People who receive a whipping do not like to pay roundly for it in money after it is over The loyal States should therefore secure themselves against repudiation, or its equivalent, the assumption of the rebel debt, and the only way they can do this is by the adoption of the Constitutional Amendment, the fourth section of which is as follows

> The validity of the public debt of the United States authorized by law, including debts incurred for payment of pensions and bounties suppressing insurrection or rebellion, shall not be questioned. But neither the United States or any State shall assume or pay any debt or obligation incurred in aid of insurrection or rebellion against the United States, or any claim for the loss or emancipation of any slaves, but all such debts, obligations and claims shall be held illegal and void.

Mr CRAWFORD asked to have his vote recorded [illegible] on S J R No 3 to submit third amendment to the State Constitution Leave was granted

PROPOSITIONS AND MOTIONS.

Mr STERNS introduced a resolution reciting the facts in relation to Indian depredations in Eastern Oregon and directing the Committee on Military Affairs to report [illegible] you City and Dalles stage the robbery of the mails and express and the mortal wounding of the stage driver It is a patent fact that the citizens of that portion of the State are in constant peril Notwithstanding that Canyon City is the largest town in Eastern Oregon yet the [illegible] of marauding Indians have often been heard in the city by people when in their beds No man is safe in going two miles and a half from the town All over [illegible] two hundred miles from Canyon City are scattered the greater number of miners farmers and ranchmen Scarcely a day passes but we hear of the loss of lives and property It is time that a stop was put to this condition of things Grant county pays all her taxes, both to the State and to the United States The Government owes her citizens protection Protection is a right which every citizen may demand If the military of the United States fail to protect the State owes it In a financial point of view the State can afford protection That country affords a market for all your agricultural districts It is the interest of Oregon that the mines be developed It strengthens and enlarges your markets It is your interest to take immediate steps to afford us protection We pay large prices for your products If we are left unprotected the country fails to be developed Your losses in that case or your failure to realize a market will soon overbalance all that it would cost to protect the country The mail between Canyon City and the Dalles is now stopped We have had the mail only a few months and now I understand it will be thrown up We are thus cut off from the balance of the State Our letters will cost us by express a large tax, to which we ought not to be subjected That our mines are rich, none will dispute that the development of the country will enhance the prosperity of the whole State is equally true. The right of a citizen to protection the interests of the whole State demand immediate action

Mr PYLE Union and Baker counties are in the same condition as Grant. During all the past summer it has been unsafe to travel from the county seat of Baker to Mormon Basin, where there are extensive and rich mines I know one merchant who has a store at Auburn and one at Mormon Basin He is obliged to travel back and forth in the night, it not being safe to move in the day time. There are active furious men who go in the day time, but every day almost we hear of men being shot stock killed or stolen and that too within a few miles of Auburn and within the corrals of ranches. A volunteer company of eighty men was raised this summer which pursued and came up with a band of Indians, but they were too strong for the volunteers, and they were obliged to return and disband It is not unfrequent that whole trains are stolen I knew of one case where a ranch was attacked and one man defended it all night, and till relieved in the morning by a train of packers When I was at Umatilla, I found all the warehouses full of goods, the sidewalks covered the steamers taking full loads, but teams were unwilling to take freight. The price of freight was rapidly rising The reason for this state of things is that the freighters run strong risks of losing both trains and freights We are citizens of the United States it is the duty of the United States to protect us We are however not protected It is not the fault of the Governor it is the fault of the officer in command of the military forces on this coast We must not depend too much on the United States troops They may in time give us what we need but we cannot wait Indian depredations are taking place every day The State should take some action It owes protection to its citizens for their allegiance to it. If there can be any case in which the State should act without waiting for the general government, this, in my opinion, is such a case.

Speeches were further made by Messrs. Donnell Dolph Palmer and Sterns, strongly advocating immediate action They agreed in the opinion that the Eastern portion of Oregon is neglected by the U S. military authorities that to wait the time required to memorialize Congress would be to subject that country to a desolating Indian war that if anything can be done by the State it should be done

The question being taken on the resolution it was adopted by an unanimous vote

REFERENCE OF THE GOVERNOR'S MESSAGE

On motion of Mr Cartwright that portion of the Governor's message relating to emigration was referred to a select committee of three [Committee not announced]

On motion of Mr Dolph that part of the message which relates to Indian hostilities was referred to the Committee on Federal relations

On motion of Mr Palmer that portion of the message which relates to schools, was referred to the Committee on Education

On motion of Mr Johnson so much of the message as refers to delinquencies of counties, was referred to the Committee of Ways and Means

FIRST READING OF BILLS.

Mr Miller of Jackson introduced Senate Bill No. 1, to tax and protect Chinamen mining in Oregon This bill forbids Chinamen mining in Oregon without a license, and taxes them for such privilege $2 per month—licenses to be taken out quarterly Punishes fraudulent collections of tax by severe fines and imprisonment.

Mr PALMER objected to the bill for the reason that it appeared to have a retrospective operation

Mr MILLER explained that the figures "1860" might be changed to "1866" and obviate the gentleman's objection.

Mr PALMER withdrew his objections

Mr PYLE objected to the bill stating that the provisions were in conflict with the Constitution

Mr JOHNSON had the same objection to make He had another objection that the bill was in conflict with treaties between the United States and China, on the subject of trade and commerce

Mr MILLER hoped the Senate would allow the bill to be printed when it would be found to protect as well as tax Chinamen

Mr STERNS was in favor of the bill on policy, but opposed to it on the ground that it contravenes the Constitution. He desired to have the miners protected from the nuisance of Chinese miners

Mr STERNS moved to refer the bill to a committee of three

Mr PRESIDENT The question is "Shall the bill be rejected?" No other motion can be entertained till that is disposed of

Mr HINSDALE wanted the bill printed and considered If Chinamen can be constitutionally taxed he desired that they should be made to pay something toward the support of the Government

Mr PALMER opposed the rejection He wanted to know more about the matter When the Constitution was adopted, there were many Chinamen here who had acquired rights. They should be protected.

Mr HUSTON If Chinamen are permitted to mine in Oregon, they should be taxed But if we take them under our protection and tax them, they become citizens under the civil rights law If we do not tax them they are a nuisance. I am in a quandary.

Mr. DOLPH The gentleman is mistaken as to what Chinamen may become citizens. Only those born in the United States can become citizens, under the civil rights law or any other law

Mr HUSTON stated what he understood the reading of the civil rights law to be.

Mr. DOLPH. The gentleman from Lane is certainly in error in his reading of the civil rights law But however that may be, I am opposed to the bill because I am in favor of equal and exact justice to all men. It is not right to tax one class of men and exempt another when the same reason exists for taxing or exempting both.

The vote to reject was taken and resulted, ayes, 9, nays 13, So the bill will be printed and go to a second reading

Met as usual Absent, Mr Lacey Prayer by the Rev Mr B P Dunlap of the Baptist Church Journal read and adopted.

The SPEAKER announced the Committee to inquire into the condition of the Penitentiary, as follows Hendershot, Cole and White.

THE GRANT COUNTY CONTEST.

Mr McKEAN offered a resolution authorizing the Committee on Elections to send for witnesses and testimony in his case The resolution was accompanied by a petition denying the allegations made in the petition presented by Messrs Wasley and McCoy a few days ago and stating that it was necessary to have certain witnesses who reside in Grant county brought before the Committee The petition also claims that of those who voted for the contestant thirty four persons were not citizens of the United States that forty other persons were not residents of the States eleven were not twenty one years of age thirty-eight voted in different and other precincts than their own twenty-seven were enemies of the United States and that in Olive precinct the election was broken up and invalidated by a bloody riot, whereby eighty-three votes were lost to the petitioner

Mr HERMAN moved the adoption of the motion

Mr HUMASON I understand that this application for leave to send for witnesses is equivalent to asking that the consideration of this case by this body be postponed indefinitely for we are all aware that the geographical location of Grant county is such that the witnesses and testimony cannot be procured for some weeks and probably not before the close of the session This action will continue the present incumbents in their seats until all the present business of the session is closed I am opposed to such a course and I think we should proceed without delay to examine the matters as it now stands and decide accordingly Although this resolution relates to but one seat I suppose there is no doubt but the other case will be treated in a similar manner I am somewhat surprised at such an application being made since as a member of the committee, I have not been informed that there was any intention to make it I cannot conceive of any just grounds for it All I know of these fraudulent votes is that the assertion is here made without any evidence to support them Now if they be true why did not these gentlemen come here prepared with the evidence to sustain them? This is a question which we must consider before we decide in favor of granting this application for time When a party comes into court and makes application for a continuance he must show that there has been no neglect on his part before he can get the time. We are sitting as a court to try this case, and we should be governed by similar rules to those which are followed in the courts Now I contend that these gentlemen have not made the proper effort, that they have been guilty of neglect in this matter and that, therefore they are not entitled to this favor I understand that they claim that they did not have notice that their seats would be contested I am prepared to prove by the document which I read here a short time ago that they did have such notice This document is the original notice which was served upon them and the acceptance of such service is there acknowledged upon the document under their own signatures, which they cannot deny But gentlemen say that this notice was illegal and that it is not required anyhow. Well I contend that this document is enough at any rate to establish the fact that they had fair warning and that therefore there is no excuse for this delay

Mr Humason argued at great length against the adoption of the resolution He read from the statute to show that it was necessary for parties applying for a continuance to show that they had manifested due diligence He also contended that if the facts should be true as alleged in the petition the number of illegal votes would not be sufficient to [illegible] of Rock Creek precinct [illegible] Members of the Legislature are elected [illegible] districts and may be voted for by [illegible] [illegible]

A point of order was raised [illegible] Mr NICKLIN [illegible] extended discussion of the subject was not pertinent to the subject [illegible] the House

Mr HUMASON [illegible] all the facts [illegible] thought there was a disposition manifested by some of the [illegible] that granting the [illegible] that the House would reject the resolution

Mr McKEAN I wish to [illegible] gentleman has alluded to [illegible] which I have induced me to offer this resolution [illegible] objects that Grant county [illegible] far as I am concerned all that I desire [illegible] impartial trial Coming here as I did [illegible] am entitled to this seat all that I ask all that I desire is to have a fair trial before this body and before the people of Oregon I am perfectly willing to abide that decision If it is found that I have [illegible] there I [illegible] remain If it should be found that I have been guilty of fraud, I am willing to go out [illegible] But there appears to be a disposition [illegible] of the opposition here that I shall not have a fair trial—that I shall be tried upon ex parte evidence and much of that unsubstantiated without the privilege of defense I will say that if Grant county is [illegible] this is no reason why the legal voters of that county should be refused a fair investigation of this matter with all the evidence of the case He says we have been guilty of neglect [illegible] deny it Under the statutes of Oregon we can have no notice of the fact that ours is to be contested until after the meeting of the Legislature Even if the notice which it is claimed was served upon me, is of any consequence in law—which I deny—it was not properly served The statute says it is to be served within thirty days after the election This notice was not served until thirty-three days afterward and then by an irresponsible person—not by an officer authorized to serve a summons I acknowledged the service it is true, but I did it in order to fix the date so that there might not be a chance for them to come up and claim that the notice was duly served within the thirty days prescribed by law So I could not take any notice of this notification that my seat would be contested Hence I did not come here prepared to meet this trial Then, sir, this is not an application for a continuance but a resolution empowering a committee of this body to take testimony which could not have been taken previous to the organization of this House In support of the action which is here proposed there are numerous precedents in the Congress of the United States A member there is not supposed to have any knowledge of his seat being contested until after Congress convenes I have a book in my possession in which I find that this was the ruling from 1830 up to 1851 when a general law was passed in regard to the matter I desire now to correct an assertion that I learn has been circulated among the members of this Legislature and upon the streets to the effect that we are holding seats of contestants here who have from two hundred to three hundred majority over us. This is not so The majorities as returned are sixty one and thirty five in our favor and the probabilities are that if only the votes of the bona fide citizens of the county had voted our majorities would have been much greater Now sir I am not afraid of the facts in this case. The reason why I ask leave to take evidence is that all the facts in the case may be presented Justice to the people as well as to myself requires this much, and all we ask is justice In John Day's precinct the judges of election allowed every person to vote who would swear that he had been in the county fifteen days At Olive Creek precinct the officers of the election participated in a general row and although there was sealing wax upon the table the poll books were returned unsealed Many such facts as these I can prove I desire to ventilate this matter which was heralded abroad in the public press as a fraud an imposition upon the people by myself and colleagues. It has been admitted upon the streets here by prominent members of the opposition that we could prove 49 illegal votes Again I repeat it we desire a fair trial and are willing to abide the result [Applause]

Mr HUMASON replied at great length He thought that it was a poor argument to claim that a row had occurred at one voting place for if there was a row there must have been two sides to it—Republicans as well as Democrats. He denounced the action of the county clerk in rejecting the returns of some of the precincts He urged his objections to the resolution and the reason why the matter should be brought immediately before the House He believed the sitting members were here by fraud and should not be permitted to vote upon important issues

Mr HELM was opposed to the resolution He believed that Messrs Brents and McKean were here through the official perjury of Thomas H Brents, and now it was proposed as a last resort to sustain that fraud by evasive measures.

Mr BRENTS called the gentleman to order for using indecorous language He thought he had borne such abuse and denunciation about long enough The assertion should not be made so repeatedly without some proof.

Mr HELM I have no doubt but the assertion would be fully borne out by the proof He argued that this resolution would create too much expense. Each witness would cost at least $150 Important questions are soon to come up and what if it should turn up after awhile that some of the sitting members had no right to vote upon them? It would be a fraud upon the people He argued that this question had already received the decision of Judge Wilson and that he had decided against the legality of rejecting the returns.

Mr OLNEY hoped the House would be able to come to a vote before adjourning The only question before us is whether this case shall be tried or not this can as well be decided now as a week hence It is absolutely necessary to a fair trial of this case that this power should be given to the Committee There is testimony to be taken before competent authority in Grant county and witnesses are to be examined before the Committee. It is alleged that certain soldiers who were in the service of their country had no right to vote, On the other hand it is claimed that other soldiers—rebel soldiers—should be excluded too The contestants want to prove that the books from some precincts were wrongfully rejected It is said poll-books are here as evidence He saw a bundle of papers tied up in a newspaper but supposed that official records are kept in a proper office and that they must be sworn to by a proper officer We are sitting here to try this case by law, and I am determined for my part to do it This is a proposition to let in all the evidence, and not, as had been asserted, to cover up anything Mr McKean the sitting member, had no right to take any notice of the notification served upon him and he would have been doing wrong to have taken any evidence. Until the petition was placed on file here no notice could have been taken of the contest That was the first step He denied that the sitting member had manifested a want of diligence Considering the short time and the length of the session here it was remarkable that they had prepared the case so soon He thought the objection as to expense was undignified The people have a legislature and it must be guarded and governed by law

The previous question was moved and the resolution carried—25 ayes to 21 noes

At 12:50 P M adjourned.

AFTERNOON

The Committee on Elections asked leave to send for persons and papers in the Polk county contested case. Granted

Petitions were presented from Messrs Stanley and Burch asking leave to withdraw their applications for seats in the House By request of Mr Helm they were laid over till he could present a minority report

Mr HENDERSHOTT offered a resolution to postpone the consideration of the Constitutional Amendment [to the U S. Constitution] till the contested seats are decided The resolution was supported by Messrs Hendershott Humason and Cox and opposed by Messrs Olney Upton, Nicklin and Roland on the grounds that the main question would soon come up Lost—21 to 25

Messages from the Senate transmitting joint resolutions ratifying the amendment to the Constitution of the United States and also of this State were read and on motion referred to the Judiciary Committee, with orders to print 100 copies

At 3 50 P M adjourned

THE WASHINGTON GUARD.—The arrangements for the fourth annual target excursion of the Washington Guard, which takes place on Tuesday next near the Fulton House, are such as will make the occasion very pleasant. The Washington Guard is now the oldest Militia Company in the State, and the prosperity which has attended the organization is based solely upon the individual efforts of the members, who have supplied themselves with a full uniform which will compare favorably with that of any similar organization on the coast, besides which they have furnished their own armory in a neat manner, and kept the company united, and while several other companies have been formed, to flourish but for a short time, the Washington Guard, with no greater encouragement, still maintain themselves and represent the Oregon State militia. On the morning of Tuesday the company will parade through the principal streets of the city before leaving for the field selected for their target exercise. The shooting will be for prizes presented to the company by friends who appreciate their efforts, and at the close of the exercises they will partake of dinner prepared by Mr. Woodard, of the Fulton, and return to Portland, closing the day with a grand civic and military ball, at Oro Fino Hall. The well known reputation of the Guard for getting up entertainments of this character is sufficient guarantee to the dancing portion of our community that the evening will be highly enjoyed. We bespeak for the Guard a good attendance, which they so richly deserve.

THE CALIFORNIA STEAM NAVIGATION COMPANY.—Comment is unnecessary upon the following, which we quote from the Red Bluff Independent, of September 12th, except to add that if the Red Bluff people wait to see the Montana bought off they will be "looking ahead" for some time. The Independent says: "The California Steam Navigation Company proposes to raise its capital from two and a half millions of dollars to five millions. What the design of the directors may be in doing this, we, of course, are unable to divine, but, as is well known, the company has been pretty well bothered by low ..., on the ocean this year. We think that an effort to buy off the propeller Montana is about to be made, but it surely does not take all of two and a half millions to do that. It certainly cannot be to build new river steamers, for they have enough to last for the next five years, in all the rivers of this State. But if it should be that the increase of the Montana should be the only object of the increase of the company's capital, the people of the section have much cause for self-congratulation. As soon as the Montana is withdrawn from the Portland route, up will go freight to the old figure of twelve dollars per ton, and then the superiority of the Sacramento river route to Owyhee will be no longer a matter of doubt. The whole Owyhee trade will come by way of Red Bluffs or Chico, and that will require at least four boats a week from Sacramento. Keep up your courage, men; there's a good time coming."

PASSENGERS FOR CALIFORNIA.—The California, Oregon, and Mexico Steamship Company's steamer Sierra Nevada, Captain Francis Connor Commander, leaves at 6 A. M. to-day for San Francisco, taking passengers as follows: Jno Gifford, wife and 2 children, M Gifford, E A Smith, J White, P Shumbu, J B Miller and wife, D C Pearson, Mrs D Tillie, Mrs W H Payne, William J Smith, W H C Adams, C Catlin, A Catlin, J F Wood, M T Brewer, Geo Williams, P H Barhydt, Mrs S Levy & 2 children, S W Wooldrige & wife, Mrs H Wooldrige & 3 children, Hiram Sleight, P J McGowan, J T Mael, M B Robbins, C H Mills, E M Pilgrington, Jas McGongin, Phil Lewis, S E Mack, N Wertheimer, wife and child, W H Smith, J P Bartlett, Mrs B B Gorillo, G H Wolfe, Richard Pierce, Robert Pierce, S C Wright, C Gross, C Green, F Van Deveer, T J Peabody, H J Carr, W T Shannon, Miss Dora Wooldrige, Miss E Wooldrige, Miss M Wooldrige, W G ..., (Wells, Fargo & Co's Messenger,) and 37 in the steerage.

The Graefenberg Company's Uterine Catholicon does not contain one particle of calomel or mercury, and cases of Female Complaints which require other treatment than the Catholicon are extremely rare. It should be used in all cases of Deranged Monthly Periods, Weakness, Irregular Appetite, Nervousness, Headache, Disturbed Sleep, Acid Stomach, Nausea, Indigestion and Pains and Difficulties connected with the Uterine Organs.

THE UTERINE CATHOLICON

Is a most successful remedy for Gravel and all affections of the Kidneys and Bladder, while in the troublesome symptoms attending Pregnancy, the benefits of the Catholicon are most remarkable. It is a perfect restorer of the functional and general health from budding womanhood to the turn of life, and those patients who have used the GRAEFENBERG COMPANY'S UTERINE CATHOLICON find difficulty in expressing their thankfulness for the beneficial effects of this wonderful medicine.

FROM THE CAPITAL.

[SPECIAL TO THE OREGONIAN.]

SALEM, Sept. 18.—The Senate this morning proceeded to the election of a U. S. Senator which resulted in Gibbs receiving a majority of four. The House postponed balloting for U. S. Senator until 12 M. The forenoon was spent in an exciting debate upon a motion to admit the two Grant county Democratic contestants to their seats, and at 11 o'clock a motion to adjourn till 2 P. M., prevailed. Immediately after meeting the election of U. S. Senator was postponed until Tuesday the 25th. The afternoon was spent in the consideration of the Grant county election, resulting in a vote supported by all the Democrats and three Union members, instructing the Committee on Elections to report on Thursday. Great excitement prevailed throughout the session, the lobby and passage way being crowded with spectators.

OUR SAN FRANCISCO DISPATCH.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 18.—The examination of Peter B. Headly, late agent of Wells, Fargo & Co., at Gold Hill, Nevada, for embezzlement, was commenced in the Police Court to-day, Alex. Campbell appearing as his counsel. The defense rely upon showing that the offense was not committed within the jurisdiction of the California courts. The prosecution, on the other hand, have a full confession of the whole affair by Headly, made in the presence of witnesses. It was proven to-day by Mr. Todd, the telegraph agent at Gold Hill, that several messages which were shown, were sent by Headly to this city. Those messages order the payment of several thousand dollars to Wm. Hurling, broker, in this city, and are signed by Headly as agent of Wells, Fargo & Co., but it is proposed to be shown that the money was not used for their business, but invested in stocks for Headly's account, and by his order. They claim, therefore, that the conversion actually took place in San Francisco. They showed further by Mr. Todd and Mr. King, their Cashier at Virginia City, when the defalcation was first suspected, that Mr. King went to the office at Gold Hill by order, to look over the books. Headly said he was going out for a few moments, and would return soon. He then left the office, and going home shot himself in the head, but failed to kill himself. Afterwards he told the whole story.

FROM IDAHO.

The Statesman of the 13th has the following:

BUSINESS IN IDAHO.

A very encouraging and hopeful sign of the times is, that notwithstanding the terrific failures and stagnation in many of the mining companies, still the merchants of Boise City have disposed of large quantities of goods this summer, and are now buying stocks as heavy as ever before. The failure of More & Fogus does not shake the confidence of business men in the wealth of our mines. We wish it to be so understood by everybody in the Territory and out of it. Even the mines of More & Fogus, the Oro Fino, and the Morning Star, will pay when properly worked, even at the present great cost of mining operations; while the Poorman and Silver Cord are proving the richest mines that have ever been worked in the world. No mine in Owyhee county that gave a reasonable assurance at the beginning, in width of vein and character of rock, has yet failed to yield a good encouragement for the labor done. It is but natural that the failure of the firm of More & Fogus should create a terrible depression in mining operations; but as the smoke and excitement clear away, the fact becomes more apparent than ever before that there is really no cause to distrust our mines, though faith in mining companies and humanity in general, if you please, be considerably shattered.

GOOD NEWS FOR ROCKY BAR.

Information has been received that Mr. Benson is on his way from New York with the intention of starting his mill again this fall. Hope it is true. The Wide West, owned by his Company is certainly a good ledge and will pay handsomely when properly worked. Mr Benson has the ability to conduct a mining enterprise to a successful issue if he will devote himself to it under anything like favorable opportunities.

Attention Firemen.—The members of the Portland Fire Department are requested to meet at the What Cheer House at 2 o'clock P. M. to-day, Sept. 19th, 1866, to attend the funeral of our late Brother, James Algeo, of Vigilance Hook and Ladder Co. No. 1.

THOMAS G. YOUNG,
Chief Engineer Portland Fire Department.

Vig. H. & L. Co. No. 1.—Members are requested to meet at the Truck House this day at 1 o'clock P. M., to attend the funeral of our deceased Brother, Jas. Algeo. By order of the Foreman.

NOTA BENE.—ELLSWORTH & CARDWELL, 89 First Street, continue to attract public attention to their MAGNIFICENT PHOTOGRAPHS, CARTES DE VISITE, SUN PEARLS, ENAMELED CARD PICTURES, etc. The truth is, this is the only GALLERY where you can get the genuine production of the art. This firm have lately received from New York some beautiful stereoscopic views of the White Mountains and vicinity.

THE THREATENING ASPECT OF the weather imperatively demands that, to avoid discomfort from the wet season now rapidly advancing, every one should go to the ST. LOUIS STORE, NO. 111 FRONT STREET, and provide themselves with a suit of that SUPERB THICK CLOTHING which KOHN & FISHEL brought on and are constantly receiving, EXPRESSLY FOR THIS CLIMATE. And do not forget to examine their EXTENSIVE STOCK of extra fine and heavy BOOTS AND SHOES.

HOSTETTER'S
CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS.
READ AND REFLECT.

Make sure of Health. "But how?" you ask;
We answer, 'tis an easy task.
Strengthen the STOMACH, and sustain
The NERVES, the servants of the brain.
The LIVER keep in active play
And regulate, from day to day.
Each organ aid, on Nature's plan,
Brace and refresh the INNER MAN,
And like a watch that's kept in chime
By constant care, with railroad time,
The system's tone and strength renew,
And thereby cheer the spirits, too.
"How," you inquire, "can this be done?
This Victory o'er Disease be won?"
"HOSTETTER'S BITTERS," we reply,
IS HEALTH'S SUPREME PROTECTION—TRY!

As a means of regenerating the disordered and enfeebled system, regulating every function of the internal organs, reviving the depressed spirits, invigorating the constitution, and prolonging life, no medicinal preparation, either of the past or the present time, has been so completely and universally successful as

HOSTETTER'S CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS.

Against the vapors foul prepare,
That fever-taint the heavy air.
Drink not unmixed the water found
In prairies, woods or marshy ground.
If sedentary toil you ply,
Nature you must assist—or die—
For when debarred from exercise
For artificial aid she cries.
Medicine's grand purpose and intent
Is threatened evil to prevent;
And if you'd be relieved or spared
From ills that crush the unprepared,
Hostetter's Bitters needs no note
They are the SUREST ANTIDOTE.

To set at defiance the miasma of unhealthy soils, the poison of unwholesome water, the effluvia of crowded work-rooms and factories, and the baneful influence of sedentary employments, it is only necessary to be forearmed with

HOSTETTER'S CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS.

Dyspepsia's pangs, that rack and grind
The body, and depress the mind;
Agues, that as they go and come,
Make life a constant martyrdom;
Colics and dysentric pains,
'Neath which the strong man's vigor wanes;
Bilious complaints, those tedious ills,
Ne'er conquered yet by drastic pills;
Dread diarrhoea that cannot be
Cured by destructive mercury;
Slow constitutional decay
That brings Death nearer, day by day;
Nervous prostration, mental gloom—
Heralds of madness or the tomb;
For these—though mineral nostrums fail—
Means of Relief at least we hail,
HOSTETTER'S BITTERS—medicine sure,
Not to prevent, alone, but cure.

In dyspepsia, fever and ague, bilious complaints, constitutional and nervous debility, constipation, sea-sickness, spasms, and in all complaints of Man or Woman, proceeding from casual or inherent weakness of the body, the one great remedy and restorative is

HOSTETTER'S CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS.

To wanderers on sea or land,
From Polar shore to Tropic strand;
To households lone, in regions new,
And dwellers in great cities, too;
To soldiers in camp, fort and field,
Who need against disease a shield;
To miners, California bound,
And tillers of wet, marshy ground;
To feeble wives of fragile mold,
To young and middle-aged, and old;
To those in health, who would enjoy
Heaven's best gifts without alloy;
To all the strengthless, weak and pale,
Who droop, yet know not what they ail,
Hostetter's Bitters we present
As Health's most potent element.

If there is any value in public opinion, or any weight in medical testimony, the very best and safest Tonic, Corrective and Alterative now before the world is

HOSTETTER'S CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS.

Sold by respectable druggists in all parts of the world.

G. VENARD,
CHARTRES COFFEE!
Manufactory Established in June, 1851.
STEAM POWER, NOS. 625 AND 627 FRONT ST.
HAS CONSTANTLY ON HAND GROUND AND ROASTED COFFEE, GREEN COFFEE of the best qualities. CREAM OF TARTAR and SPICES of all sorts.
The undersigned, who has always enjoyed public confidence for the excellent quality of his Coffee, neglects nothing to justify the good name acquired by his productions, the sale of which daily increases. The acknowledged superiority of his merchandise, which commands here, and in the markets of the interior, a relatively higher price, excite the cupidity of some manufacturers, and every day he sees increasing the number of those who, by counterfeit or imitation of his mark, seek to deceive the public, palming upon them their inferior productions for the genuine G. VENARD CHARTRES COFFEE. This fraud can deceive nobody after trial, but only adds to the favorable opinion of the consumers, the very flattering though unwilling testimony of the counterfeiters. Nevertheless, buyers should be forewarned, and placed on their guard against this practice.
BEWARE OF COUNTERFEITS.

STOP THAT COUGHING
SOME OF YOU CAN'T, AND WE PITY you. You have tried every remedy but the ONE destined, by its intrinsic merit, to supersede all similar preparations. It is not surprising you should be reluctant to try something else after the many experiments you have made of trashy compounds foisted on the public as a certain cure; but
NEWELL'S Pulmonary Syrup
is really the VERY BEST remedy ever compounded for the cure of Coughs, Colds, Sore Throat, Asthma, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis and Consumption. Thousands of people in California and Oregon have been already benefited by the surprising curative powers of NEWELL'S Pulmonary Syrup
and with one accord give it their unqualified approbation. We now address ourselves to all who are unacquainted with this, the greatest Panacea of the age, for the healing of all diseases of the Throat and Lungs, assuring you that has cured thousands and it will cure YOU if you try it.
NEWELL'S Pulmonary Syrup
This invaluable medicine is pleasant to the taste; soothing, healing and strengthening in its effects; entirely free from all poisonous or deleterious drugs, and perfectly harmless under all circumstances.

In the Rebel Prison Pen.

BY J. B. SWETT.

How they languished away, in the prison together,
For months, dreadful months, with the death phantom nigh,
Exposed to the hot sun, and wild tempest weather,
To faint from starvation—grow frenzied and die!
O, God! can the tongue of man utter the tale!
Can pencil e'er sketch that wild picture of woe!
Both may attempt it and signally fail,
For nothing can tell all a mortal may know.

Down on the sands, in the filth there, to wallow,
From night until morn, and from morning till night—
Skeleton forms—eyes sunken—cheeks hollow—
O, merciful God—what a horrible sight!
Raising their bony hands upward and praying,
Some to their Maker, and many for bread—
Some idiotic, unconsciously straying,
Some blindly staggering over the dead!

That time has gone by for the dead, and the living;
The dead, in their low graves, to suffer no more,
The living to shudder when meagerly giving
The story of wrong never equalled before.
Not all unto man is the judging power given,
Nor power, with success, for free pardon to sue;
Those deeds are all kept in the day-book of heaven,
And every oppressor must meet with his due.

Mr. Nasby at last gets his Post Office.

CONFEDERIT X ROADS,
(wich is in the Stait uv Kentucky,)
August 12, 1866.

At last I hev it! Finally it come! After five weery trips to Washington, after much weery waitin and much travail I hev got it. I am now Post Master at Confederit X Roads and am dooly installed in my new position. Ef I ever had any doubts ez to A. Johnson bein a better man than Paul the Apostle, a look at my commission removes it. Ef I ketch myself a feelin that he desertel unnecessarily five years ago, another look and my resentment softens into pity. Ef I doubt his Democrisy I look at the blessed commission and am reassured, for a President who cood turn out a woundud Federal soldier and apoint sich a man ez me, must be above suspicion.

I felt it wuz comin two weeks ago! I received a cirkler from Randall, now my sooperior in offis, propounding these questions:

1. Do yoo hev the most implicit faith in Androo Johnson, in all that he has done, all that he is doin and all he may hereafter do?

2. Do yoo believe that the Philadelphia Convenshun will be a convocashun uv saints, all actuated by pure motives, and devoted to the salvation of our wunst happy but now distracted country?

3. Do yoo bleeve that next to A. Johnson, Seward, Doolittle, Cowan and Randall are the four greatest, and purest, and bestest, and selfsacrificinest, and honestest, and righteousist men this country hez ever prodoosed?

4. Do yoo bleeve that there is a partikolerly hot place reserved in the next world for Trumbull, a hotter for Wade, and the hottest for Sumner and Thad. Stevens?

5. Do yoo approve uv the canin uv Grinnell by Rosso?

6. Do yoo consider the keepin out uv congris eleven sovrin states a unconstooshnel and unwarrantid asumpshun uv power by a secshnal congris?

7. Do yoo bleeve the present congris a rump, and that (eleven states bein unrepresented) all their acts unconstooshnel and illegal ceptin them wich provides for payin salaries?

8. Do yoo believe that the Memphis and Noo Orleans unplesantness wuz brot about by the unholy machinashens uv them Radical agitators, actin in conjunction with ignorant and besotted niggers to wreak their spite on the now loyal citizens uv these properly reconstructed" cities?

9. Are yoo not satisfied that the African citizens of Amerikin descent kin be safely trusted to the operations uv the universal law which governs labor and capital?

10. Are yoo willing to contribute a reasonable per cent. uv your salary to a fund to be used for the defeat uv objectionable Congrismen in disloyal States North?

To all uv these inquiries I not only answered yes, but went before a Justice uv the Peace and took an affidavit to 'em, forwarded it back and my commission wuz fourthwith sent to me.

There wuz a joobilee the night it arriv. The news spread rapidly through the four groceries uv the town, and sich another spontaneous outbust of joy I never witnessed.

The bell rung, and for an hour or two the Corners wuz in the wildest stait uv egsitement. The citizens congratoolated each other on the certainty uv the accession uv the President to the Dimocricy, and in their enthoosiasm five nigger families were cleaned out; two uv 'em, one a male and the tother a female, wuz killed. Then a perceshun wuz organised as follers:

Two grocery keepers with bottles.

Deekin Pogram.

Me, with my commishun pinned onto a banner and under it written: "In this sign we conker."

Wagon with tabloo onto it. A nigger on the bottom boards, Bascom, the grocery keeper, with one foot onto him, holdin a banner inscribed: "The nigger where he oughter be."

Citizen with bottle.

Deekin Pogram's daughter Mirandy in a attitude uv walloping a wench. Banner; "We're regained our Rites."

Two citizens with bottles trying to keep in perceshun.

Two more citizens which hed emptied their bottles, fallen out by the way side.

Citizens two and two with bottles.

Wagon loaded with books and furnitur uv a nigger skool, in a stait uv wreck, with a ded nigger layin on top uv it, which had been captoored within the hour. Banner—"My Policy."

The perceshun mooved to a meetin house and Deekin Pogram takin the chair, a meetin wuz to wunst organized.

The Deekin remarked that this wuz the proudest moment of his life. He wuz gratified at the appintment uv his esteemed friend, becos he appreciated the noble qualities which wuz so conspikuous into him, and becos his arduous services in the coz uv Dimocricy entitled him to the posishun. All these wuz aside uv and entirely disconnected from the fact that there would now be a probability uv his gittin back a little matter uv $9.62, ["Hear," "hear!"] which he had loaned him about eighteen months ago, afore he had known him well or learned to luv him. But there wuz another reason why he met to rejoice to-nite. It showed that A. Johnson meant bisiness—that A. Johnson wuz troo to the Dimokracy, and that he had fully made up his mind to hurl the bolts of official thunder which he held in his Presidential hands at his enemies, and to make fight in earnest, that he wuz goin to reward his friends, them ez he cood trust. Our venerable friend's bein put in condishun to pay the confiden residents uv the Corners that the little sums he owes them, is a good thing, ["Hear!" "Hear!" "Troo!" "troo!" with singular unanimity from every man in the bildin] but wats the use of such condishuns when compared to the great moral effect uv the decisive movement. ["A d—d site," shouted one grocery keeper, and "We don' want no moral effect," cried another.] My friends, when the news of this bold step of the President goes forth to the South, the price uv confederit scrip will go up and the shootin uv niggers will cease, for the redempshun of the first I consider ashoored, and the redoocsin uv the latter to their dominal condishun I count ez good ez done.

Squire Gavitt remarked that he wuz too much overpowered with emoshun to speak. For four years, nearly five, the only newspaper wich come to that offis had passed thro' the polluted hands uv a Ablishnist. He hed no partikler objecshun to the misguided man, but he was a symbol uv tyranny, and so long ez he sot there he reminded me that they were wearin chains. Thank the Lord that this day is over! The Corners is redeemed, the second Jackson hez risen and struck off the shackles. He wood not allood to the trifle of twelve dollars and a half that he loaned the appointee some moths ago, knowin that it wood be paid out uv the first money.

Bascom, the principal grocery-keeper, rose and called the Squire to order. He wanted to know ef it wuz fair play to talk sich talk. No man cood feel a more heartfelt satisfaction at the appointment uv our honored friend than him, showin ez it did that the President had cut loose from Ablishinism which he dispised, but he protested agin the Squire undertakin to git in his bill afore the rest had a chance. Who furnisht him in licker for eight months, and who hez the best rite for the first dig at the proceeds uv the position. He wood never—

The other three grocery-keepers then rose, when Deekin Pogram cooled em all out uv order and offered the followin resolutions:

WHEREAS, The President hez in a strikly constooshnel relieved this commoonity uv a an offensive Ablishnist appinted by that abhorred tyrant Linkin, and appinted in his place a sound constooshnel Democrat, one whom to know is to lend; therefore be it

Resolved, That we greet the President and ashoor him of our continyood support and confidence.

WHEREAS, The President hez in a strikly constooshnel manner relieved this commoonity uv an offensive Ablishnist appinted by that abhorred tyrant Linkin, and appinted in his place a sound constooshnel Democrat, one whom to know is to lend; therefore be it.

Resolved, That we greet the President and ashoor him of our continyood support and confidence.

Resolved, That we now consider the work uv reconstruction, so far ez this community is concerned, completed, and that we feel that we are once more restored to our proper relations with the Federal Government.

Resolved, That the glorious defense made by the loyal Democracy uv Noo Orleans agin the combined conventioners and niggers shows that freemen kin not be conkered, and that white men shall rule America.

Resolved, That on this happy occasion we forgive the Government for what we did and cherish nary resentment agin nobody.

Then come a scene. Every last one uv em had come there with a note made out for the amount I owed him at three months. Kindness of heart is a weakness of mine, and I signed them all, feelin that of the mere fact of writin my name wood do em any good, it would be cruel in me to object to the little labor required. Bless their innocent soles, they went away happy.

The next morning I took possession of the office.

"Am I awake or am I dreaming," thought I. "No, no! it's no dream. Here is the stamps, here is the blanks, and here is the commishun. It is troo! it is troo!"

I heerd a child across the way singin:

"I'd like to be a angel,
And with the angels stand."

"I wouldn't," thought I. I wouldn't change places with an angel, even up. A office with but little to do, with four grocerys within a stone's throw, is ez much happiness ez my bilers will stand without bustin. A angel, forsooth!

PETROLEUM V. NASBY, P. M.

Importance of the Fall Elections.

The Atlantic Monthly for September, discusses the logic of the President's position, and the effect of the coming elections, in a timely and well written article. It says:

It is computed that the gain in the approaching elections of twenty-five districts now represented by Union Republicans, will give the Johnson party, in the next Congress, a majority of the House of Representatives, should the Southern delegations be counted; and it is proposed that the Johnson members legally entitled to seats should combine with the Southern pretenders to seats, organize as the House of Representatives of the United States and apply to the President for recognition. Should the President comply, he would be impeached by an unrecognized House before an incomplete Senate, and if convicted would deny the validity of the proceeding. The result would be civil war, in which the name of the Federal Government would be on the side of the revolutionists. Such is the programme which is freely discussed by the partisans of the President, considered to be high in his favor; and the scheme, it is contended, is the logical result of the position he has assumed as to the rights of the excluded States to representation. It is certain that the present Congress is as much the Congress of the United States as he is the President of the United States; but it is well known that he considers himself to represent the whole country, while he thinks that Congress only represents a portion of it; and he has in his character just that combination of qualities, and is placed in just those anomalous circumstances, which lead men to the commission of great political crimes. The mere hint of the possibility of his attempting a coup d'etat is received by some Republicans with a look of incredulous surprise; yet what has his Administration been to such persons but a succession of surprises?

But whatever view may be taken of the President's designs, there can be no doubt that the safety, peace, interest and honor of the country depend on the success of the Union Republicans in the approaching elections. The loyal nation must see to it that the Fortieth Congress shall be as competent to override Executive vetoes as the Thirty-Ninth, and be equally removed from the peril of being expelled for one more in harmony with Executive ideas. The same earnestness, energy, patriotism, and intelligence which gave success to the war must now be exerted to reap its fruits and prevent its recurrence. The only danger is that in some Representative districts the people may be swindled by plausibilities and respectabilities; for when, in political contests, any great villainy is contemplated there are always found some eminently respectable men, with a fixed capital of certain eminently conservative phrases, innocently ready to furnish the wolves of politics with abundant supplies of sheep's clothing. These dignified dupes are more than usually active at the present time; and the gravity of their speech is as edifying as its emptiness. Immersed in words, and with no clear perception of things, they mistake conspiracy for conservatism. Their pet horror is the term "radical;" their ideas of heroic patriotism, the spectacle of a great nation which allows itself to be ruined with decorum, rather than commit the slightest breach of constitutional etiquette. This insensibility to facts and blindness to the tendency of events, they call wisdom and moderation. Behind these political dummies are the real forces of the Johnson party, men of insolent spirit, resolute will, embittered temper and unscrupulous purpose clearly know what they are after, and will hesitate at no "informality" in the attempt to obtain it. To give these persons political power will be to surrender the results of the war, by placing the Government practically in the hands of those against whom the war was waged. No smooth words about the "equality of States," "the necessity of conciliation," "the wickedness of sectional conflicts," will alter the fact that, in refusing to support Congress the people would set a reward upon treachery, and place a bounty on treason. "The South," says one Hill, of Georgia, in a letter favoring the Philadelphia Convention, "sought to save the Constitution out of the Union. She failed. Let her now bring her diminished and shattered, but united and earnest counsels and energies to save the Constitution in the Union." The sort of Constitution the South sought to save by warring against the Government is the Constitution which she now proposes to save by administering it. Is this the tone of pardoned and penitent treason? Is this the spirit to build up a national Union party? No; but it is the tone and spirit now fashionable in the defeated rebel States, and will not be changed until the Autumn elections shall have proved that they have as little to expect from the next Congress as from the present, and that they must give securities for their future conduct before they can be relieved from the penalties incurred by their past.

The New Guise of the Democratic Party.

We have been satisfied for some time past that the so-called National Union party, headed by Randall, Doolittle, Cowan and the President, would degenerate into Democracy. The "States Rights" doctrine, the desire to make the States as nearly independent of the General Government as possible, and a determination to "prescribe the qualification of electors" in the several States, all point conclusively to a result which is sure to follow. Already the elements of the old Democratic party have responded to the movement at Philadelphia. Everywhere throughout the United States what was left of the Democracy has rallied to the support of the President. The object is to draw the lately rebellious States into the folds of the Democratic party, when it is hoped that defection may be produced amongst those which upheld the Union cause, sufficient to control enough Northern, Middle and Western States to carry elections. The scheme has been carefully matured, but from present indications it is not likely to prove successful, nor is it desirable for the future prosperity of the country that it should. Could the Democratic party obtain power by a consolidation of those persons who were lately Copperheads, traitors, and fighting against the Union, they would be able to arrange the labor system of the Southern States so as to suit those who were lately slave-owners, and raise up a spirit of intolerance akin to that which existed prior to the breaking out of the rebellion. But even then our difficulties would not end, for agitation would continue. It is evident that all oppression of blacks as well as whites in the Southern States must cease before the public mind will be quieted. Never will the South be able to domineer over the North as it did prior to the war, nor Southern politicians control so completely the politics of the country. Hereafter the "privileges and immunities of citizens" must be thesame, in all the States of the Union. The struggle to put down independent thought and action in the South cannot prevail, because the people of the North will not be parties to such wickedness.

By the amendment of the Constitution proposed by Congress, for the time being it was contemplated to permit the several States to exclude a portion of the population from the rights of suffrage. This is as much of an advantage as should have been asked by those States lately in rebellion, and they are not likely to gain more. In a political contest in the Northern States, it will be exceedingly difficult to convince the people that the Southern States should be permitted to abridge the rights of citizenship, which must inevitably be the case in the event that the Constitutional amendment now pending should fail. The controversy between the Executive and Congress narrows itself to a few simple propositions. One of these is that "no State shall make or enforce any law which shall abridge the privileges or immunities of citizens of the United States; nor shall any State deprive any person of life, liberty or property without due process of law; nor deny any person within its jurisdiction equal protection of the law." The efforts to restore the rebellious States to the Union before any arrangements shall be made as to the rights of individuals, is undoubtedly with a view to defeat the amendment to the Constitution. A consolidation of interests North and South between Copperheads and rebels has been made. Northern Democrats, and persons who opposed the prosecution of the war for the preservation of the Union, desire to gain power. Southern rebels wish to restrict the rights of persons, saying who shall vote within their borders, without reference to citizenship. They desire further to continue in existence laws most oppressive to the colored race, which authorize arrests and imprisonment of freedmen when removing from one State to another. Public opinion in the loyal States will not permit a compromise with wrong and oppression, hence it is that this new move of the Democratic party must fail.

THE ARMY BILL.—The new army bill creates an army of sixty regiments; five of artillery, and forty-five of infantry. This is an actual increase in the regular army of four regiments of cavalry and thirteen of infantry. Two of the new cavalry regiments and four of the infantry regiments are to be composed of negroes, and four of the infantry regiments, called the Veteran Reserve Corps, are to be of men who were wounded in the late war, but are still fit for garrison or light duty. In both infantry and cavalry all the original vacancies in the grades of First and Second Lieutenants are to be filled from volunteer officers and soldiers. With respect to the higher grades, it is provided that in the cavalry two-thirds, and in the infantry one-half of the officers shall be from the volunteers, and the remainder from the regulars, all of whom shall have served at least two years during the late war. The officers of the Veteran Reserve Corps are to be either regulars or volunteers wounded in the line of duty during the war, and selected by appointment of the President. The negro troops are in every respect on an equal footing with white troops. Enlistments in the cavalry are to be for five years; in the artillery and infantry for three years.

SOMETHING NEW!

THE NEW LIGHT!
DANFORD'S
Atmospheric Coal Oil Gas Lamp!

ARTIFICIAL LIGHT OF SOME SORT, IS A UNIVERSAL necessity. A Safe, Cheap and Brilliant one is a Luxury—a luxury only enjoyed heretofore by those who live in large cities where Gas is used. Years of study and much capital have been exhausted in experiments to produce a lamp wherein the ordinary Kerosene or Coal Oil could be used without a chimney, and without unpleasant odor while in use. That fruitful source of expense, trouble and annoyance, the chimney, is in DANFORD'S COAL OIL GAS LAMP avoided; it is the most perfect Lamp and will entirely supersede all other Coal Oil Lamps; it is the cheapest artificial light that can be used, yielding the light of an ordinary six foot Gas burner for less than ½ cent per hour, or double the quantity of light of an ordinary Chimney Lamp, for one third the cost. It will burn when turned down to a taper-light, ten hours for a cent, is free from smoke, can be carried from room to room and the wind will not blow it out. These LAMPS will be on exhibition and for sale at the Music and Art Gallery of Shanahan & Dufrene, corner of Morrison and First streets.
